

Juvenile Hearing Board Vacancies

LINCOLN - Lincoln residents, who have a background in related fields such as education, human services, community youth services, and law enforcement, are needed to fill upcoming vacancies on the Town's Juvenile Hearing Board.

The purpose of the Board is to hear cases referred by the Police Department and recommend sanctions other than incarceration for offenders. The Board meets monthly and its members receive no compensation.

If interested, send cover letter and resume, no later than August 14, 2020, to the Personnel Office, 100 Old River Road, Lincoln, RI 02865. Please call (401) 333-8434 with any questions.
